TODAY, October 15,

- Is the twentieth Sunday after Pentecost
- Rev. Jeremy Mulder, senior pastor at Restore Church and stated clerk for Classis Hudson, will worship with and lead us in worship
- We will celebrate communion at our morning service. Jesus said, “Come to me all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.” All, then, who are truly sorry for their sins, who sincerely believe in the Lord Jesus as their Savior, and who earnestly desire to lead a godly life, ought to accept the invitation now given and come with gladness to the table of the Lord

NEXT SUNDAY, October 22,

- Is the twenty first Sunday after Pentecost
- John Dyksen will worship with and lead us in worship

Father, the trees are ablaze with your glory.
The seasons change, but you never do.
You are always beautiful, in the green and freshness of spring as in the golds and reds and chills of autumn. Make me like you.
Let my life reflect your beauty, season after season,
as the calendar of my life turns and turns and turns.

The trees are letting go of this year’s foliage.
Help me let go of both blessings and burdens,
and surrender them both to your loving care.

Fallen leaves pattern the ground with variety.
So design my own fallings and failings into whatever design will please you most.
In Jesus’ name, I pray,

Amen.
