Today's Joint Reformation Sunday is a day when we worship in spirit of gratitude for our reformed heritage and a reflection of what it means to be Reformed. Today's liturgy is structured around John Calvin's French worship liturgy in Strasbourg around 1540 which preserves the unity of the Word and the Sacraments, a unity John Calvin valued highly.

We welcome the congregations of Cedar Hill CRC, Covenant CRC and Faith Community Church to our joint Reformation Sunday Worship Service. We thank God for our shared reformed faith and heritage. Soli Deo Gloria!
