

HUMANS OF FAITH

-David Dykhouse -

Who's the most famous person you've met?

Semi-famous (or infamous) people I have met (or more): Rudy Giuliani, John Catsimatidis, Supreme Court Justices Sonia Sotomayor and Clarence Thomas, D. Robert Owen (the courageous young Justice Department lawyer who single-handedly advanced voting rights in Mississippi when people were being killed for voting, and Uncle Fred (host of TV's Junior Frolics).

What's the strangest thing you've ever eaten, and would you eat it again?

Escargot. No.

What is your favorite vacation spot or most interesting place you've ever visited?

Favorite: Acadia National Park (but it's getting too crowded). Most interesting (after NYC): London, England (great theatre and museums and so much more).

If you were a potato, how would you be cooked?

Potato chips.

What's your favorite Bible verse and why?

Galatians 2:20—it's so personal: the Son of God "loved me and gave himself for me." Close runners-up: Romans 8:38-39 (my father's favorite) and Colossians 2:13-14 (what a graphic word-picture!—my death sentence being nailed to the cross so that Jesus could bear it in my place; ask to see my "Colossians 2 nail").

Describe an experience in life that changed your values.

Co-leading a team from the Calvin College student newspaper investigating racial discrimination in a Christian school in the western suburbs of Chicago at the same time that (a) I was engaged to marry a girl from the west side of Chicagoland whose family had deep roots in the Christian school support community there and (b) I was deeply immersed in a course entitled "Reformation Theology" with a great Calvin professor.

Do you have a secret talent? If so, what is it?

If I told you, it would no longer be a secret!

FAITH COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Quick Question: Is there a deep fryer in your kitchen? Would you be willing to lend it to the church for the making of olie bollen? We're hoping to have a Saturday morning coffee "and" (with the "and" being olie bollen), in October, but we need 3 deep fryers to accomplish this. Please see Trudie Pruiksma, Bev Bentley or Ginny Hoogstra if you are able to help us out. Thanks!

ATTENTION ALL READERS! Faith Community is starting a lending library. It will be located in the narthex. Donations of Christian and secular books would be appreciated and can be placed in the box in the narthex. Thank you so much! Any questions, please see Ginny Hoogstra or Julanna Klaasen.

Join the Pastoral Care Visitation Team! Our congregants have given so much to our church over the years, and now we have the opportunity to give back. As a member of this team, you will have the privilege of visiting and spending time with those who may be homebound, in nursing homes, or simply in need of a kind word and a listening ear. If you have a compassionate heart and a few hours to spare, please consider joining us in this important work. Support will be provided, so don't worry if you're new to this kind of ministry. The purpose of this team to make a point of contact, so even if you are unable to visit, a phone call, card, text or chat on Sunday mornings would be wonderful. Please see Kelly with questions or to sign up.

Ladies: Please join us each Thursday at 10 am in the church fellowship hall for a time of Bible Study, prayer and fellowship. You can enter through the outside nursery door to avoid the stairs. If you have any questions or need a ride, please contact Linda VanLenten and Barb Belanus.

REQUESTED ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sing Handel's Messiah with the Cathedral Choir & the American Chamber Orchestra December 7th, 7:00 PM, at Cedar Hill Christian Reformed Church. Interested singers are invited to come 2:30-4 PM to the first of nine Sunday rehearsals beginning October 6th at Midland Park Christian Reformed Church. The American Chamber Orchestra will again accompany the Cathedral Choir with a quartet of soloists and Robert F. Davis conducting in their 80th annual performance.
